ABOUT US

One Press is a full-service production, events, and brand experience company, specializing in turning concepts into impactful, real-world executions. We deliver end-to-end solutions across large-scale events, conferences, media production, high-end commercial content, and film productions, providing background artists, actors, and special performers to bring every project to life. From strategy and planning to execution and delivery, we handle every stage with precision.

Beyond production, One Press works closely with influencers and talent to build strong digital identities through content creation, strategic positioning, and performance-driven campaigns that elevate visibility and credibility across platforms.

Powered by a skilled team and strong industry partnerships, One Press operates with a clear system built on people, process, and performance—ensuring consistency, impact, and results that leave a lasting impression.

MODELS & ACTORS

Our talented actors, professional models, and skilled background artistes are carefully selected for their presence, elegance, and versatility, delivering high-level performance across events, exhibitions, campaigns, film productions, and commercials. They bring every project to life with professionalism, confidence, and impact, enhancing brand image and creating memorable experiences across all platforms.
